PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, the Secretary of State of the State of Oregon, has notified me in writing that pursuant to the provisions of an act entitled "An Act making effective the initiative and referendum provisions of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, and regulating elections thereunder, and providing penalties for violations of provisions of this act," approved February 24, 1905, the People's Power League of Oregon filed in his office on February 24, 1906, an initiative petition containing 8942 signatures properly attached to a copy of said measure certified in accordance with law, demanding that a proposed amendment to Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, to be designated in the Constitution as Section 1A of Article IV of said Constitution, shall be submitted to the legal voters of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the general election to be held in said state on the 4th day of June, being the first Monday in June, 1906, designated by said People's Power League of Oregon as "Constitutional amendment for local, special and municipal laws and parts of laws," which said proposed amendment is heretofore published in this issue of this newspaper.

Now, Therefore, I, Geo. E. Chamberlain, Governor of the State of Oregon, in obedience to the provisions of said act heretofore first mentioned, do hereby make and issue this Proclamation to the people of the State of Oregon, announcing that the People's Power League of Oregon has filed said initiative petition with the requisite number of signatures thereto attached, demanding that there be submitted to the legal voters of the State of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular election to be held on the 4th day of June, 1906, said day being the first Monday in said month, a proposed amendment to Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, to be designated in the Constitution as Section 1A of Article IV of said Constitution, designated by said People's Power League of Oregon as "Constitutional amendment for local, special and municipal laws and parts of laws," which said proposed amendment is as follows:

Section 1A. The referendum may be demanded by the people against one or more items, sections or parts of any act of the legislative assembly in the same manner in which such power may be exercised against a complete act. The filing of a referendum petition against one or more items, sections or parts of an act shall not delay the remainder of that act from becoming operative. The initiative and referendum powers reserved to the people by the constitution are hereby further reserved to the legal voters of every municipality and district as to all local, special and municipal legislation of every character in or for their respective municipalities and districts. The manner of exercising said powers shall be prescribed by general laws, except that cities and towns may provide for the manner of exercising the initiative and referendum powers as to their municipal legislation. Not more than ten per cent of the legal voters may be required to order the referendum, nor more than fifteen per cent to propose any measure by the initiative in any city or town.
